

“Study To Show Thyself Approved Unto God”

(2 Timothy 2:15)

Daily Bible Reading Guide

Week 7: February 13-19

Our reading this week takes us to the third book of the Pentateuch, Leviticus. The book gets its name (as do the other 5 books of law) from the Septuagint, the Greek translation of the Hebrew scriptures. The Hebrew name is “the law of the priests.” The book deals with the things pertaining chiefly to the Levites, and more specifically to the priests of this tribe, those given the responsibilities regarding sacrifices and offerings. To the New Testament Christian, the book ought to help us realize even more the importance of approaching God in the manner he prescribes, as well as having a better understanding of our importance as priests within His Kingdom (1 Peter 2:5, 9).

Some questions to consider as you are reading...

February 13 – Leviticus 1-4

- From where does God now speak to Moses? (1:1)
- To whom was Moses to give the commands God instructed? (1:2)
- How is the sacrifice offered in 1:3 described as far as it’s quality and our willingness? How does this help us to understand how our offering to God should be?
- In 1:5, what family are the priests said to be of?
- How long was the offering to be? (3:17) Can we determine if this means time without end, or if it is a time determined by God?
